

The newly adopted Eleventh Five-Year Plan on Chinese Medicine set missions that drive industry growth

The State Administration of Traditional Chinese Medicine has recently issued the Eleventh Five-Year Plan on the development of Chinese medicine. The Plan stipulates six major missions in the next five years to:

- 1) Establish extensive and full service Chinese medicine medical network in municipals and rural areas
- 2) Elevate the applicability of Chinese medicine on public health emergency, increase the strength of Chinese medicine as preventive measure on major illnesses and diseases, and play a more important function in the New Rural Area Cooperative Medical Scheme to safeguard healthiness of people
- 3) Further enhance the system of training Chinese medicine talents by continuously establishing education networks
- 4) Establish systems for Chinese medicine scientific research inheritance and innovation, as well as accelerate modernization and academic advancement to effectively protect and utilize Chinese medicine resources
- 5) Enrich Chinese medicine legislations and systems of Chinese medicine standards
- 6) Attain more perceptible outcome from international cooperation on Chinese medicine

China Shineway was named as National Outstanding Labor Relation Harmony Enterprise

At the 4th China Employer Conference held in Beijing, China Shineway was elected as one of the National Outstanding Labor Relation Harmony Enterprises.

China Shineway has always regarded our employees as the foundation for our company's growth. Harmony and stability in labor relation are means for healthy growth of our business.